

Appreciation for connaisseurs

BUSINESS COLLECTION

Confiserie Sprüngli is a pioneer in the world of chocolate production and has helped shape Swiss chocolate's excellent reputation across the globe. The highest level of precision and skill, premium ingredients and exquisite indulgence make our chocolate an expression of true appreciation. We are happy to help, whatever your requirements, and will assist you in choosing your individual gifts. Together, we plan and design your packaging, choose the finishing touches, and we'll even help you create personalised pralines with your own logo – perfect for any occasion. Sprüngli offers you an all-round service for life's special moments.

1. PACKAGING

First, you choose your desired packaging. Whether it's a cardboard box, wooden box or a high-quality tin, all the options are available in different sizes and can be individually personalised and printed.

2. FILLING

You can then choose your own selection of pralines and truffles, or you can turn to our tried and trusted standard selection. It can also be adjusted to include seasonal specialties.

3. REFINEMENT

Finally, you can add the finishing touches to your unique gift with a printed box, or with a personalised customer ribbon. Our customer advisors will be happy to assist you in choosing and designing your exclusive gift.

Chocolate for every taste

PREMIUM SWISS CHOCOLATE

An exquisite chocolate assortment, ranging from classic to innovative. Choose from dark, milk or white praline and truffle creations and put together your own personal assortment. We only use cacao from the world's best growing regions and combine this with real vanilla or exquisite champagne to create unique chocolate taste experiences. Our chocolate creations are freshly made, using the best natural ingredients. We don't use any preservatives in our products, and they have a shelf life of 36 days. A shelf life of 90 days is possible on request. Create your own pralines with your own logo or design – either printed, embossed or as a relief – as well as a delicious filing of your choice.

Sprüngli takes responsibility

A TRADITION OF RESPONSIBILITY

Confiserie Sprüngli takes a responsible approach to the environment and maintains high ethical standards along the entire value chain. Everything starts with selecting the right ingredients. When procuring our cacao beans, we place great importance on sustainability and responsible production conditions. Where possible, palm oil is replaced with sustainable ingredients. Our goal is to completely stop using palm oil in the future. We are committed to Switzerland as a production location and always source our raw ingredients from Switzerland, when possible.

WE ARE SPRÜNGLI – HANDMADE WITH LOVE

We are a Swiss family business, founded in 1836, and are one of the most renowned confectioners in Europe with our exquisite portfolio. Our products all embody the highest quality, passion and unique moments of pure indulgence. For this, we have our employees to thank; it's only thanks to them that we can continue to meet the standards of quality, traditional craftsmanship and authenticity that we are known for. Confiserie Sprüngli trains around 30 to 40 apprentices in five careers. We look for talented people who can join the team and share our enthusiasm for creating unique products, every single day. That's why we place great importance on maintaining a loyal and respectful relationship with all our employees.
